Welcome to the Studio

Tall Stories is delighted to present the Tall Stories Studio, an exciting, accessible space situated in Central Library on Holloway Road, approximately 300m from Highbury and Islington station.

The Studio is available for organisations to hire for rehearsals, workshops, events and sharings for an invited audience.

This beautiful newly renovated space restores the original front portion of the 1906 library building and features high ceilings, a semi-sprung floor, large windows and lots of natural light.

We hope to welcome you to the Studio soon. Please get in touch if you would like any more information or to enquire about availability.

“We’ve had a wonderful experience using the Tall Stories Studio for both rehearsals and live-streamed performances. It’s a great size, with high ceilings and lots of natural light, and easy to load in any gear or ser through the loading bay. It’s well equipped technically, and we are always well assisted by the friendly and helpful Tall Stories Team.”

Andrew Pugsley, ‘Showstopper!’ The Improvised Musical.

- Wi-fi, which is available in all areas of the studio. An ethernet connection is also available for streaming.
- Kitchen facilities which are shared with the Tall Stories team. A fridge, freezer, microwave, and dishwasher are available for use. This room is not suitable for meetings or extended periods as it has little ventilation.

- Our private toilets consist of one toilet with a sink and one accessible toilet with a sink and shower.
- Bluetooth/wired PA system for sound.
- Blackout blinds.
- 11 chairs and two large folding tables, plus various small folding tables.
- Unisex dressing space available for 3 to 4 people, which can be partitioned off from the kitchen area – but not in an exclusive fashion. It is not suitable for changing clothes by under 18s or adults at risk for safeguarding purposes. The kitchen area is a shared space with the Tall Stories team and is part of the main entry and exit point to and from the Tall Stories office.

NB Any exceptions to any of the above rates will be discussed and agreed in advance of booking.

All bookings are subject to the completion of a booking form and a signed hire agreement.

Studio space specifics

Dimensions

Rehearsal space is 10.7m x 11.2m. With the seating bank extended and side tabs in position (theatre style), the playing space is 7.5m wide x 5.7m deep. Playing depth can be increased to 6.6m if the crossover tabs are not in position or if the front row of seating is removed (reducing the audience capacity from 80 to 69). The height from floor to the lighting rig is 4.38m.

Capacity

For performances, the capacity is 80 audience members. This consists of 69 bench seats on a retractable seating bank and 11 chairs on ground level on the front row.

Masking

Soft black masking is provided on a track system around the playing space.

Rigging

Rigging is via a dead hung mother truss. The maximum loading capacity of the truss is 4,000KG including existing lighting and sound equipment. All rigging must be pre – agreed with Tall Stories.

Flooring

The flooring is semi-sprung bamboo and must not be screwed into.

Access Equipment
